Law Student Volunteer Internship Program

About the Office:

Under the constitution of the State of Florida, the State Attorney is the chief prosecuting officer of all criminal trial courts in their circuit. The Office of the State Attorney, 17th Judicial Circuit, enforces and defends the law of the State of Florida and its Constitution in and for Broward County, Florida through the investigation, filing, and prosecution of criminal cases. The office is comprised of several divisions and trial units prosecuting a wide range of criminal cases including: misdemeanors, felonies, juvenile, economic crime, domestic violence, sexual battery, career criminal, 10-20 Life, organized crime, drug trafficking, traffic homicide, homicide and appeals. Interns will be assigned to one of the various divisions within the office for the duration of their internship. Within their assigned divisions, interns will have the opportunity to work with various assistant state attorneys and on a variety of assignments.

Job Description:

Interns will assist the assistant state attorneys with legal research, pre-trial motion and trial preparation, case discovery, and drafting of court pleadings. Interns will also work with the assistant state attorneys on a variety of other subject matters and issues arising within the respective divisions to which they are assigned. Interns will also be able to attend and observe depositions and pre-trial conferences, and are strongly encouraged to attend and observe court proceedings and inter-office training sessions in order to become familiar with the working of the criminal justice system.
